MARRAKECH

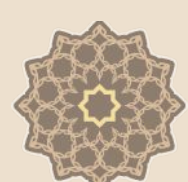

The history of Marrakech:

Marrakech was founded around 1070 by the Almoravid dynasty, who established it as a major political and commercial center. Thanks to its strategic location between sub-Saharan Africa and northern Morocco, the city quickly grew through trade and exchange.

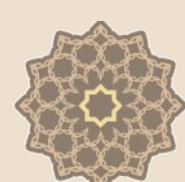

Over the centuries, different dynasties such as the Almohads and the Saadians shaped the city, building its iconic landmarks like the Koutoubia Mosque and the Saadian Tombs. Marrakech gradually became an important cultural and architectural capital.

Today, the city blends this rich historical heritage with a vibrant modern energy, between the traditional medina, lively souks, and more contemporary neighborhoods.

Getting around Marrakech easily:

The Indrive app is often the most convenient and affordable option for getting around, with fares negotiated directly. However, it is not officially regulated, so it's best to stay discreet when using it.

Local taxis remain the most common option. It's always a good idea to agree on the price before getting in, as fares can vary, especially for visitors.

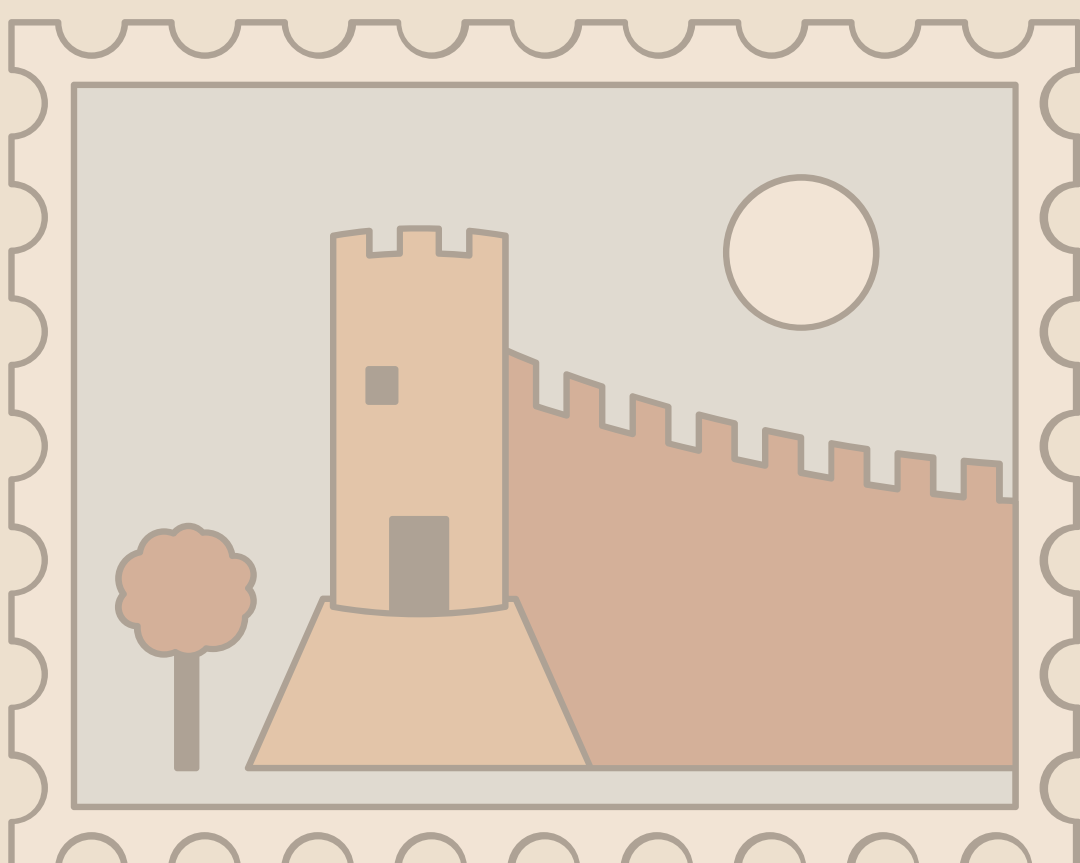

Shopping and delivery:

Glovo is a very convenient app in Marrakech for quick deliveries, whether it's meals, groceries, or everyday items.

It works especially well for fast food and non-food products. However, it's worth being a bit more careful with fruits and vegetables, as quality can sometimes vary depending on the order.

There are also plenty of small local shops on almost every street, making it easy to pick up essentials, as well as larger supermarkets like Marjane and Carrefour, which are very popular.
